

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)	Criminal No. 5:24-CR-503 (DNH)

Defendant.)

The United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, the United States Attorney for the Northern District of New York, and defendant Emilio Chirico (hereinafter “the defendant”), by and through the defendant’s counsel of record, hereby enter into the following plea agreement pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure:

1) The Defendant's Obligations:

- a) Guilty Plea: The defendant will change the defendant's previously entered plea of "not guilty" and plead guilty to Count 1 of the indictment in Case No. 5:24-CR-503 (DNH) charging wire fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343 (Count 1), and misappropriation of postal funds, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1711 (Count 7).
- b) Special Assessment: The defendant will pay an assessment of $100 per count of conviction pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3013. The defendant agrees to deliver a check or money order to the Clerk of the Court in the amount of $200, payable to the U.S. District Court, at the time of sentencing.
- c) Compliance with Other Terms of Agreement: The defendant will comply in a timely manner with all of the terms of this plea agreement.

d) Restitution:

(1) The defendant will consent to entry of an order directing the defendant's payment of restitution in the following amounts to the following victim, whether or not the losses suffered resulted from the offenses of conviction: United States Postal Service: $81,553.94.

(2) The defendant agrees that the judgment will order restitution to be due and payable immediately subject to any payment terms set forth by the Court at sentencing and that the Clerk of the Court may release funds to victim without undue delay upon receipt of restitution payments from the defendant.

e) Forfeiture: Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c), the defendant will consent to entry of an order directing forfeiture to the United States of the property described in the Forfeiture Allegation in the indictment described above, or to any substitute assets, or to a money judgment, all as more fully set out below:

(1) a money judgment in the amount of $81,553.94.

If any of the property described above, as a result of any act or omission of the defendant, either: (a) cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence; (b) has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party; (c) has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court; (d) has been substantially diminished in value; or (e) has been commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty, the United States of America shall be entitled to forfeiture of substitute property pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(p) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

f) Access to Records: The defendant authorizes the U.S. Attorney's Office to inspect and copy all financial documents and information provided by the defendant to the U.S.

Probation Office, including those provided as a part of the Presentence Investigation. If requested, the defendant will provide any privacy waivers, consents, or releases requested by the U.S. Attorney's Office to access records to verify the defendant's financial disclosures, and if requested will complete a further financial statement provided by the U.S. Attorney's Office as well as any supporting financial documentation to the Asset Recovery Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office no later than 10 days after receiving such a request.

- g) No Transfer of Assets: The defendant certifies that the defendant has made no transfer of assets in contemplation of this prosecution for the purpose of evading or defeating financial obligations that are created by this plea agreement and/or that may be imposed by the Court. In addition, the defendant promises not to make any such transfers in the future.

2) The Government's Obligations:

- a) Dismissal of remaining charges: Upon imposition of a sentence consistent with the terms of this agreement, the government will move to dismiss all charges against the defendant in Case No. 5:24-CR-503 (DNH) other than those to which the defendant pled guilty pursuant to this agreement and on which the Court imposed sentence. Such dismissal will be without prejudice, permitting the government to seek reinstatement of any and all of those charges if the guilty plea and sentence do not remain in effect.
- b) Non-prosecution for other offenses: For so long as the defendant's guilty plea and the sentence remain in effect, the government will not seek other federal criminal charges against the defendant based on conduct described in the indictment in Case No. 5:24-CR-503 (DNH) and/or in the paragraph of this agreement entitled "Factual Basis for Guilty Plea,” occurring before the date on which the defendant signs this agreement. This agreement does not prevent the government from seeking charges based on other conduct.

- c) Compliance with Other Terms of Agreement: The government will comply in a timely manner with all of the terms of this plea agreement.

3) Potential Maximum Penalties: The defendant understands that the Court can impose the following maximum penalties for the offenses to which the defendant agrees to plead guilty and may be required to impose mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment, all as set out below:

Count 1 (wire fraud):

- a) Maximum term of imprisonment: 20 years, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1343.
- b) Maximum fine: $250,000, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3571.

Count 2 (misappropriation of postal funds):

- a) Maximum term of imprisonment: 10 years, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1711.
- b) Maximum fine: $250,000, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3571.

Both Counts:

- a) Supervised release term: In addition to imposing any other penalty, the sentencing court may require the defendant to serve a term of supervised release of up to 3 years, to begin after imprisonment. See 18 U.S.C. § 3583. A violation of the conditions of supervised release during that time period may result in the defendant being sentenced to an additional term of imprisonment of up to 2 years.
- b) Other adverse consequences: Other adverse consequences may result from the defendant’s guilty plea as further described in paragraph F below.

4) Elements of Offenses: The defendant understands that the following are the elements of the offenses to which the defendant agrees to plead guilty. The defendant admits that the defendant's conduct satisfies each and every one of these elements.

Count 1-wire fraud:

- a) The defendant devised a scheme to defraud or to obtain money or property by materially false or fraudulent pretenses, representations or promises;
- b) That the defendant acted with the intent to defraud; and
- c) That in advancing, furthering, or carrying out the scheme, the defendant transmitted any writing, signal, or sound by means of a wire, radio, or television communication in interstate commerce or caused the transmission of any writing, signal, or sound of some kind by means of a wire, radio, or television communication in interstate commerce.

Count 7-misappropriation of postal funds:

- a) The defendant was an employee of the United States Postal Service;
- b) The defendant knowingly, unlawfully, and intentionally converted to his own use money or property;
- c) The money or property came into the defendant's hands or under his control in the execution or under color of his office, employment or service; and
- d) The value of the postal property exceeded $1,000.

5) Factual Basis for Guilty Plea: The defendant admits the following facts, that those facts demonstrate the defendant's guilt for the offenses to which the defendant is pleading guilty, and that there are no facts establishing a viable defense to those offenses:

- a) From May 2012 through March 2023, the defendant was employed by the United States Postal Service ("USPS") as a station manager at the Dewitt Post Office in Onondaga County, New York. The defendant was the custodian for the stamp stock inventory sold at the Dewitt Post Office.

- b) At the Dewitt Post Office, there were two types of stamp stock inventory: the retail floor stock and the unit reserve. The retail floor stock was the stamp inventory that postal clerks used for day-to-day retail sales at the Post Office. The retail floor stock was accessible to postal employees for retail sales and to stock their drawers.
- c) The unit stamp stock reserve was a quantity of stamps used to replenish the retail floor stock. The unit reserve was housed in a safe at the Dewitt Post Office which was under the exclusive custody and control of CHIRICO. CHIRICO set the combination to the safe; no other postal employee had access to the unit reserve in the safe.
- d) The USPS tracked stamp inventory in the retail floor stock and the unit reserve using the USPS retail systems software (“RSS”), with the server housed in Eagan, Minnesota. At any given time, a query could be done in the RSS to see what stamp stock was in the retail floor stock or the unit reserve, by the station manager, or other USPS employees.
- e) When the retail floor stock was low on stamps, it was the custodian’s responsibility to transfer stamps from the unit reserve to the retail floor stock and enter the transfer in the RSS. Another USPS employee served as a witness to the transfer. The employee witness was required to log into the RSS and “accept the transfer” which is captured electronically, and on a USPS Form 17, “Stamp Requisition/Stamp Return” [hereinafter “Form 17”].
- f) Pursuant to USPS protocol, the custodian is required to conduct yearly audits of the unit reserve together with another USPS employee. During the audit, the custodian and the other employee must each separately physically count the stamps inside the unit reserve safe and record the count of the stamps in a report called the USPS Form 3294, “Cash/Stamp Credit Count Report,” [hereinafter “Form 3294’] which is generated in the RSS.

- g) During the audit, the custodian is noted to be counter 1 on the Form 3294, and the witness is noted to be counter 2. Both counters must log into the RSS using their individual login and password. The Form 3294 also notes what, according to the computer, stamp stock should be in the safe when it’s counted (the system count).
- h) Following the count, the Form 3294 is completed, capturing the physical count summary, which is compared to the system count, to see if there is a shortage or overage. Each counter’s signature appears on the Form 3294 electronically once it is submitted through the RSS. Counter 1 certifies the count to be correct. Counter 2 certifies that they have examined the cash/stamp credit. The electronic signature of both counters will only appear if both counters are logged into the RSS.
- i) In March 2023, Dewitt postal clerks were routinely running out of stamp stock to sell and made numerous requests from other post offices to transfer stamp stock to Dewitt. A query of the RSS revealed that unit reserve should have had over $82,853.94 in stamp stock. The Acting Postmaster scheduled an unannounced audit for the Dewitt Post Office for March 21, 2023. CHIRICO was on leave but was directed, that morning, to report to the Dewitt Post Office and instructed to open the safe holding the unit reserve. A physical count was undertaken as part of the audit; the unit reserve had $1,300 in stamps, resulting in a shortage of $81,553.94 in stamps.
- j) Between January 2021 and March 2023, CHIRICO converted to his own use $81,553.94 in stamp stock, property of the USPS, that came into his hands and under his control as the Dewitt Post Office station manager.

- k) To facilitate his scheme, CHIRICO conducted sham audits of the unit reserve and falsified the USPS Form 3294 in the RSS for each sham audit, to make it appear that an actual audit was undertaken with another postal employee. The sham audits helped conceal his theft of the stamp stock.
- l) On January 29, 2021, CHIRICO conducted a sham audit of the unit reserve by fraudulently entering L.W.'s login information into the RSS, to make it appear that L.W., a postal employee, audited the unit reserve as counter 2, when L.W. did not conduct an audit, or enter his information into the RSS. During the sham audit, CHIRICO completed a Form 3294 bearing his electronic signature as counter 1, and the electronic signature of L.W. as counter 2. CHIRICO submitted the Form 3294 via the RSS by means of a wire communication in interstate commerce from the Dewitt Post Office to Eagan, Minnesota.
- m) To facilitate his scheme, CHIRICO also conducted sham audits on October 26, 2021 and January 3, 2023.
- n) CHIRICO also initiated sham transfers of stamp stock from the unit reserve to the retail floor stock, and back, using a USPS Form 17, for those occasions where he couldn't do a sham audit, and an actual employee conducted a physical count of the stamp stock. Prior to these legitimate audits, CHIRICO conducted a sham transfer of stock from the unit reserve to the retail floor stock to decrease the amount of stamp stock that was expected to be in the unit reserve. CHIRICO logged into the RSS using another employee's login information, to accept the transfer. After the audit, CHIRICO did a sham transfer back from the retail floor stock to the unit reserve. CHIRICO conducted sham transfers on October 27, 2021, February 10, 2022, and February 14, 2022.

- o) The defendant personally obtained $81,553.94 in unrecovered proceeds in connection with the wire fraud scheme, that he knowingly, unlawfully, and intentionally converted to his own use.

6) Sentencing Stipulations:

- a) The parties agree that the base offense level is seven (7) pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 2B1.1(a)(1).
- b) The parties agree that six (6) levels are added as the value of the loss was more than $40,000 but less than $95,000, pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 2B1.1(b)(1)(D).
- c) The parties agree that the defendant abused a position of public or private trust, and two (2) levels are added pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3B1.3.
- d) The government will argue that the offense involved sophisticated means, and the defendant intentionally engaged in or caused the conduct constituting sophisticated means, and two (2) levels are added pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 2B1.1(b)(10)(C). The defendant will argue that this enhancement does not apply.
- e) The government will recommend a 2-level downward adjustment to the applicable federal sentencing guidelines offense level pursuant to U.S.S.G. §3E1.1(a) if, (i) through the time of sentencing, the government is convinced that the defendant has demonstrated “acceptance of responsibility” for the offense(s) to which the defendant is pleading guilty and all relevant conduct, as defined in U.S.S.G. § 1B1.3; and (ii) the government does not determine that the defendant, after signing this agreement, committed any other federal, state, or local crimes, or engaged in conduct that constitutes “obstruction of justice,” as defined in U.S.S.G. §3C1.1.
- f) The government will move for a 1-level downward adjustment to the applicable federal sentencing guidelines offense level pursuant to U.S.S.G. §3E1.1(b) if the government is convinced that the defendant has accepted responsibility within the meaning of U.S.S.G.

§3E1.1(a) and further assisted authorities in the investigation or prosecution of the defendant's own misconduct by timely notifying authorities of the defendant's intention to enter a plea of guilty, thereby permitting the government to avoid preparing for trial and permitting the government and the court to allocate their resources efficiently, and the defendant otherwise qualifies for such adjustment by having a combined offense level of 16 or more before receipt of any acceptance of responsibility adjustment under U.S.S.G. §3E1.1(a).

7) Waiver of Rights to Appeal and Collateral Attack: The defendant waives (gives up) any and all rights, including those conferred by 18 U.S.C. § 3742 and/or 28 U.S.C. §§ 2241 and 2255, to appeal and/or to collaterally attack the following:

- a) The conviction(s) resulting from the defendant's guilty plea;
- b) Any term of imprisonment of 12 months or less;
- c) Any sentence to a fine within the maximum permitted by statute;
- d) Any sentence to a term of supervised release within the maximum permitted by statute;
- e) Any condition of supervised release on any ground (including procedural or substantive unreasonableness) that the defendant did not raise in the District Court despite both (i) notice in the presentence investigation report that the Probation Office had recommended the condition and (ii) an opportunity to object in the District Court;
- f) Any order of forfeiture or restitution imposed by the Court that is consistent with governing law and is not contrary to the terms of this agreement; and
- g) Any special assessment permitted by statute.

Nothing in this appeal waiver is meant to be or should be construed as a representation of or agreement concerning the appropriate sentence in this case. The Government and the defendant agree that this waiver applies regardless of whether any term of imprisonment is imposed to run consecutively to or concurrently with, in whole or in part, the undischarged portion of any other sentence that has been imposed on the defendant at the time of sentencing in this case. If the court imposes a term of imprisonment at or below the number of months specified above, the defendant's waiver of appeal and/or collateral attack includes any claim of procedural or substantive error in the determination or imposition of the term of imprisonment. If the court imposes a term of supervised release and/or a fine within the maximum permitted by statute, the defendant's waiver of appeal and/or collateral attack includes any claim of procedural or substantive error in the determination or imposition of the term of supervised release and/or fine. The defendant further waives the right to raise on appeal or on collateral review any claim that (a) the statute(s) to which the defendant is pleading guilty is(are) unconstitutional and (b) the admitted conduct does not fall within the scope of the statute(s). The defendant does not waive the right to raise a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel in an appeal or collateral attack on his conviction and sentence.

- A. Right to Counsel: The defendant has the right to be represented by counsel—and if necessary have the court appoint counsel—at trial and at every other stage of the proceeding. Defense counsel has advised the defendant of nature of the charges to which the defendant is agreeing to plead guilty and the range of possible sentences.
- B. Waiver of Trial-Related Rights: The defendant has the following additional constitutional rights in connection with the charges in this case: (i) to be presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt; (ii) to plead not guilty; (iii) to trial by jury; (iv) to confront, cross-examine, and compel the attendance of witnesses at trial; (v) to present defense evidence; and (vi) to remain silent and be protected against compelled self-incrimination. The defendant understands that by pleading guilty, the defendant waives (gives up) these rights.

- C. Court Not Bound by Plea Agreement: This plea agreement is made pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The Court is neither a party to, nor bound by this Plea Agreement. The Court may accept or reject this Plea Agreement or defer a decision until it has considered the Presentence Investigation Report prepared by the United States Probation Office. If the Court rejects the provisions of this agreement permitting the defendant to plead guilty to certain charges in satisfaction of other charges, the Court will permit the defendant to withdraw the plea of guilty before sentencing, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(5) & (d).
- D. Court Not Bound by Agreed-Upon Recommendations, Stipulations, and Requests: If this agreement contains any provisions under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(B) by which the government agrees to recommend, stipulates, or agrees not to oppose the defendant's request, that a particular sentence or sentencing range is appropriate or that a particular provision of the federal sentencing guidelines, or a policy statement, or sentencing factor does or does not apply, such a recommendation, stipulation, or request does not bind the Court, which may make independent factual findings by a preponderance of the evidence and may reject such recommendations, requests, and stipulations between the parties. If the Court rejects one or more recommendations, stipulations, or requests, the defendant is not entitled to withdraw the defendant's plea of guilty and is not released from the obligations described in this agreement. Under such circumstances, the government reserves the right to support and defend, in connection with any post-sentencing proceedings, any decision the Court may make with regard to the defendant's sentence, whether or not such decision is consistent with the government's recommendations, stipulations, or requests set out in this agreement.

E. Sentencing:

- a. Maximum terms of imprisonment: The defendant understands that the Court has discretion to impose a sentence within the statutory maximum sentence(s) set out in this agreement. If the defendant is pleading guilty to multiple charges, the Court may be required by law to have the sentences of imprisonment on the convictions resulting from those charges run consecutively to each other. Otherwise, the Court has discretion to have sentences of imprisonment run concurrently or consecutively. See 18 U.S.C. § 3584.
- b. Mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment: If specified in this agreement, the conviction on one or more charges to which the defendant has agreed to plead guilty may require imposition of a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment. In such cases, the court must impose a term of imprisonment no less than the required mandatory minimum term unless an exception to that requirement applies. Such exception may be dependent on a motion by the government.
- c. Section 851 Enhancements: The defendant understands that if the government has filed an information against the defendant as provided in 21 U.S.C. § 851, alleging that the defendant has one or more final convictions for a felony drug offense, and, as part of this agreement, the defendant has admitted and/or affirmed that the defendant was so convicted, then, by pleading guilty, the defendant will lose the right to attack any sentence the court imposes by challenging any such prior conviction.
- d. Sentencing guidelines:

- i. The actual sentence to be imposed upon the defendant is within the discretion of the sentencing Court, subject to the statutory maximum and mandatory minimum penalties, as described above, and the provisions of the Sentencing Reform Act and the United States Sentencing Guidelines promulgated thereunder. While the Court is not bound to impose a sentence within the applicable sentencing guidelines range, it must take into account the sentencing guidelines, along with the other factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a).
- ii. Any estimate of the defendant's offense level, criminal history category, and sentencing guidelines range provided before sentencing is preliminary and is not binding on the parties to this agreement, the Probation Office, or the Court. Until the Probation Office has fully investigated the defendant's criminal history, it is not possible to predict with certainty the defendant's criminal history category and, in some cases, the defendant's offense level.
- iii. Under certain circumstances, the defendant's criminal history may affect the defendant's offense level under the federal sentencing guidelines. If the presentence investigation reveals that the defendant's criminal history may support an offense level different than an offense level stipulated in this agreement, the parties are not bound by any such stipulation as to the defendant's offense level and may advocate with respect to how the defendant's criminal history affects the offense level.
- e. Factual findings: The defendant understands that the sentencing Court may make factual findings with respect to any and all sentencing factors and issues, including those referenced in the United States Sentencing Guidelines, whether or not such factors or issues have been admitted by the defendant or stipulated by the parties. In making those findings by a preponderance of the evidence, the Court may consider any reliable evidence, including hearsay. The Defendant understands that the sentence imposed may be determined based upon such judicial fact-finding.

- f. Use of the Defendant's Statements: The defendant understands that the sentencing court may consider any statement that the defendant has made or makes in this Plea Agreement, during the guilty plea, to the Probation Office, and at sentencing when imposing sentence. In addition the government may be able to use the defendant's statements in this agreement and at the guilty plea and at sentencing in any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding. For example, if the defendant fails to enter a guilty plea (as required by this agreement) or the defendant's guilty plea is later withdrawn or vacated for any reason other than the Court's rejection of this Plea Agreement under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(5), the government may introduce the defendant's statements into evidence in any prosecution. If, however, the Court rejects this Plea Agreement under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(5), and the defendant withdraws the guilty plea pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(d)(2)(A), the government will not be permitted to use any of the defendant's statements in this Plea Agreement. To the extent that Rule 11(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and/or Rule 410 of the Federal Rules of Evidence are inconsistent with this paragraph, the defendant waives (gives up) any protections under those rules.
- g. Government's Discretion to Recommend a Sentence: Unless a stipulation in this agreement explicitly limits the government's discretion with respect to its recommendations at sentencing, this agreement does not prevent the government from urging the sentencing Court to find that a particular offense level, criminal history category, ground for departure, or guidelines range applies; from recommending a specific sentence within the applicable guidelines range as determined by the Court or as urged by the government; or, if the government deems appropriate, recommending that the Court impose a sentence above the applicable guidelines range.

h. Sentencing-Related Information: The government has the right to advise the sentencing Court and the Probation Office of any information, in aggravation or mitigation of sentencing, whether or not encompassed within the count(s) to which the defendant has agreed to plead guilty, subject only to the limitation described in U.S.S.G. §1B1.8. No stipulation in this plea agreement limits the obligations of both parties to ensure that the sentencing Court has all information pertinent to its determination of an appropriate sentence. The parties may provide any factual information relevant to sentencing to the Probation Office and/or to the Court, without limitation, before or after the completion of the Presentence Investigation Report. The parties agree that the submission of such information shall not be deemed “advocacy” in violation of any stipulation in this plea agreement.

i. Supervised Release Term and Conditions: If the defendant is placed on supervised release, under some circumstances, including the defendant’s violation of one or more supervised release conditions, the Court may extend the term of supervised release, and may modify, reduce, or enlarge the conditions of such release.

F. Other Adverse Consequences: The following are some examples of the adverse consequences of pleading guilty other than the sentence imposed by the Court, along with any judicial order of forfeiture and/or restitution:

a. Conviction of a felony may result in the loss of civil rights, including, but not limited to, the right to vote and the right to possess firearms.

- b. If the defendant is not a United States citizen, such conviction may result in deportation or removal from the United States, may bar readmission to the United States if the defendant leaves the country, and may result in a denial of a pending or future application for citizenship. If the defendant is a naturalized citizen, such conviction may result in denaturalization, followed by deportation or removal from the United States. Under federal law, removal or deportation may be an almost certain consequence of a conviction for a broad range of federal offenses, including, but not limited to, aggravated felonies, as defined in 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(43), and crimes of moral turpitude, which includes crimes involving fraud. Removal and other immigration consequences are the subject of a separate proceeding. No one, including the defendant's attorney and the Court, can predict with certainty the effect of the conviction resulting from this agreement on the defendant's immigration status. The defendant understands this uncertainty and nonetheless wishes to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences that the guilty plea may entail, even if the consequence is the defendant's automatic removal from the United States.
- c. A felony conviction may adversely affect the defendant's ability to hold certain professional licenses and may impair the defendant's ability to do business with federal, state, and local governments or to receive benefits from such governments.

There may be other adverse consequences as well, some of them unforeseeable. It may be difficult or impossible to predict all of the adverse consequences of the defendant's guilty plea. The defendant agrees that any resulting adverse consequences, whether or not foreseen or foreseeable, will not provide a basis for withdrawing from the guilty plea described in this agreement or otherwise challenging the resulting conviction and sentence.

- G. Restitution: Independent of any agreement to pay restitution, and whether there is any such agreement, the sentencing Court may be required to order that the defendant pay restitution to any victim of the offense(s) of conviction under the Mandatory Victim Restitution Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3663A. In addition, the sentencing Court may have the authority to order that the defendant pay restitution to any victim of the offense(s) of conviction pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 & 3664. In any case involving a conviction for a sexual exploitation offense in chapter 110 of title 18 of the United States Code, the Court must order restitution for the full amount of the victim's losses as determined by the court. The victim's losses include, but are not limited to medical services related to physical, psychiatric, or psychological care; physical or occupational therapy or rehabilitation; necessary transportation, temporary housing, and child care expenses; lost income; attorney's fees and other costs; and any other losses suffered by the victim as a proximate result of the offense. The restitution payment will be in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty authorized by law.
- H. Forfeiture: If the defendant has agreed to forfeiture of assets, the defendant agrees to the following terms and conditions:
- a. The defendant hereby forfeits, to the United States, all right, title, and interest of any nature in any and all assets that are subject to forfeiture, including substitute assets, as set forth above, whether those assets are in the possession or control of the defendant, a nominee, or some other third party.
 - b. The defendant consents to the entry of an order of forfeiture of the assets described above.
 - c. The defendant is aware that pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(4)(A) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, a preliminary order of forfeiture becomes final as to a given defendant at sentencing or at any time before sentencing if the defendant consents. The defendant consents that the preliminary order of forfeiture in this case shall become final as to the defendant before sentencing, as of the date the preliminary order of forfeiture is entered by the Court. The defendant understands that the government, upon entry of the preliminary order of forfeiture, will address any potential third party claims pursuant to Rule 32.2(c), and seek to finalize forfeiture.

- d. Forfeiture of the defendant's assets will not satisfy all, or any portion of, a fine, restitution, or other monetary penalty that the Court may impose upon the defendant in addition to forfeiture. Satisfaction of all, or any portion of, any restitution, fine, or other penalty that the Court may impose upon the defendant in addition to forfeiture will not satisfy all, or any portion of, any forfeiture judgment ordered by the Court.
- e. In the event that any successful claim is made, by any third party, to the assets described above, the defendant agrees to forfeit substitute assets equal in value to the assets transferred to any such third party. The defendant agrees that forfeiture of substitute assets shall not be deemed an alteration of the Defendant's sentence.
- f. The defendant agrees to cooperate with the United States by taking whatever steps are necessary to pass clear title to the United States of any forfeitable assets, including but not limited to, surrendering title; completing any documents or legal proceedings required to transfer assets to the United States; and taking necessary steps to ensure that assets subject to forfeiture are not sold, disbursed, expended, destroyed, damaged, hidden or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture or removed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.
- g. The defendant waives the right to a jury trial on the forfeiture of assets. The defendant waives all constitutional, legal, and equitable defenses to the forfeiture of assets, as provided by this agreement, in any proceeding, including but not limited to any jeopardy defense or claim of double jeopardy or any claim or defense under the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution, including any claim of an excessive fine.

- h. The defendant acknowledges that the government may institute civil or administrative proceedings against any or all of the defendant's forfeitable assets, including, but not limited to substitute assets and any forfeitable assets not identified by the defendant, and agrees not to contest any such forfeiture proceedings.
- i. The defendant represents and warrants that the defendant has no direct or indirect interest in any property, real or personal, or other asset subject to forfeiture by virtue of this plea agreement, other than those listed above.
- j. In the event the government determines that the defendant has breached any condition of this plea agreement, none of the forfeited property shall be returned to the defendant, nor shall the defendant assert any claim to the forfeited property. The defendant shall not reacquire any forfeited property, directly or indirectly, through family members, nominees, friends, or associates.

I. Determination of Financial Condition and Payment of Interest and Penalties:

- a. In order to facilitate the collection of financial obligations to be imposed in connection with this prosecution, the defendant agrees fully to disclose all assets in which the defendant has any interest or over which the defendant exercises control, directly or indirectly, including those held by a spouse, nominee, or other third party.
- b. The defendant will promptly submit a complete, accurate, and truthful financial statement to the United States Attorney's Office, in a form it provides and as it directs.

- c. The defendant authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to obtain a credit report on the defendant in order to evaluate the defendant's ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court.
- d. Interest and penalties may accrue, as a matter of law, on any unpaid financial obligation imposed as part of the defendant's sentence, from as early as the date of sentencing.

J. Remedies for Breach:

- a. Should the government determine that the defendant, after the date the defendant has signed this plea agreement, (i) has committed any further crime or violated any condition of release or supervision imposed by the Court (whether or not charged); (ii) has given false, incomplete, or misleading testimony or information; or (iii) has moved to withdraw the defendant's guilty plea for reasons other than those described in this agreement or otherwise has breached any term or condition of this plea agreement or supplemental agreements with the government, the government will have the right, in its sole discretion, to void this agreement, in whole or in part. In the event of such breach, the defendant will remain obligated to plead guilty and otherwise comply with the terms of this agreement and will not be permitted to withdraw the defendant's guilty plea under this agreement. The defendant will be subject to prosecution for any federal criminal violation of which the government has knowledge, including but not limited to charges that this Office has agreed to dismiss or not to prosecute under this agreement.
- b. If the defendant breaches this agreement, the government will have the following remedies, among others, available to it:
 - i. To bring prosecution for any federal criminal offenses dismissed or not prosecuted under this agreement. The defendant waives (gives up) any defense or objection to the commencement of any such prosecution that is not time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations as of the date on which the defendant signed this plea agreement, notwithstanding the expiration of the statute of limitations between the signing of the agreement and the commencement of any such prosecution.

- ii. In connection with any such prosecution, any information, statement, and testimony provided by the defendant, and all leads derived therefrom, may be used against the defendant, without limitation and without regard to any rights the defendant may have under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(f) and Fed. R. Evid. 410.
- iii. To utilize any information, statement, or testimony provided by the defendant in any proceeding, including at sentencing, notwithstanding U.S.S.G. §1B1.8;
- iv. To advocate if, and how, any particular adjustment or specific offense characteristic affects the applicable Sentencing Guidelines range without regard to any contrary stipulations contained in this agreement;
- v. To refrain from making any sentencing-related motion favorable to the defendant without regard to any provision in this agreement obligating the government to consider making or make such motion upon fulfillment of certain conditions;
- vi. To urge the sentencing Court to take the defendant's breach into account when imposing sentence;
- vii. To recommend any sentence the government deems appropriate, even if such recommendation is at odds with any stipulation in this agreement.

K. Limitations: This agreement is between the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of New York and the defendant. References to "the government" in this agreement refer only to that Office. This agreement does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities. Furthermore, this agreement does not prohibit the United States, any agency thereof, or any third party from initiating or prosecuting any civil or administrative proceedings directly or indirectly involving the defendant, including, but not limited to, proceedings by the Internal Revenue Service relating to potential civil tax liability, proceedings relating to the forfeiture of assets, and proceedings by the Department of Homeland Security, Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services relating to the immigration status of the defendant.

- L. Agreement Must be Signed; Modifications Must be Written or on the Record: This agreement, to become effective, must be signed by all of the parties listed below. No promises, agreements, terms, or conditions other than those set forth in this plea agreement will be effective unless memorialized in writing and signed by all parties or confirmed on the record before the Court.
- M. Agreement to Plead Guilty Voluntary: The defendant acknowledges reading each of the provisions of this plea agreement with the assistance of counsel and understands its provisions. The defendant further acknowledges that the defendant's agreement to plead guilty is voluntary and did not result from any force, threat, or promises (other than the promises in this plea agreement and any written supplemental agreements or amendments).
